

AMSA-IUA AFRICAN SECOND FOOD FAIR, 6TH JUNE 2015.

The event was opened by DrFathu-al-Rahman, the assistant head of the Islamic African Centre, Mr. HaadiZakaria Musa, and the head of the department for student activities, AMSA-IUA President, NizamLawalAlhassan and AMSA-IUA Cultural Secretary, Sheriff Ahmed AL-hassan.

This event became the foundation of establishing the First AMSA Cultural Magazine, “The Beauty of Africa”, a platform that showcases the cultures and traditions of twenty-one African countries across all the regions of the continent.

The objective of this program was to:

- Exhibit the different African delicacies.
- To create an interactive avenue where different cultures could be brought together so as to promote inter-cultural exchange and sharing of ideas.

The sixteen countries participated, and each had two stations; for cultural artefacts and for their cuisines. These are; Sierra Leone, Sudan, Nigeria, Senegal, Ghana, Gambia, Chad, Uganda, Malawi, Zambia, Burundi, Niger, Ethiopia, Somalia, Kenya and Tanzania.
